Border Battle

The battle over the Southern border has exploded. The Biden administration sent its SCOTUS for an emergency stay on the removal of razor wire that the Texas National Guard had placed along the border. Meanwhile the battle goes on in the courts. And incursions at all points of 27 states have joined Texas in the battle, and plan to send their troops to the border to join Texas Guard to the battle. Texas Governor Greg Abbott and the Democratic voting bloc. The Border Patrol, a federal agency under Biden, has also announced it will not honor Biden's mandates.

Understanding the Supreme Court's Ruling on Razor Wire at the Texas-Mexico Border

Monday's ruling by the Supreme Court doesn't end this case. It just means that while the case goes forward, Texas can keep the razor wire in place and Border Patrol agents can't cut it down. Texas is removing the concertina wire is going to be its main line of defense. The Fifth Circuit is still going to hear arguments on February 7th. They're still going to presumably issue a decision at some point later this spring. And that's key in the order. It's a good bet that that case will end up back in the Supreme Court sometime in the future.

https://personalliberty.substack.com/p/how-to-survive-a-civil-war

Civil unrest can erupt without warning due to large satellite groups. In this situation, random mobs burn and loot businesses, and attack anyone who looks like a cop or a soldier. Riots can also be triggered by natural disasters, and effective emergency response is crucial for everyone nowadays. In case of civil unrest, staying inside your home can be the safest option for staying safe.

ZetaTalk Comment: 1/29/2024: Republican governors, fed up with the Biden Administration's policy toward the leaky southern border where migrants are virtually ushered in rather than stopped, are taking steps to protect their states. Texas is leading the way, with Governor Greg Abbott at the helm. This is a battle between state sovereignty and the Biden Administration. Meanwhile, the issue persists, to the lower courts. The Texas National Guard is under the direction of the Governor first, and will not adopt enforcement of federal laws. Texas has a border fence. This will not result in a fence that will result in another entertainment for the Biden Administration.

ZetaTalk Confirmation: 1/6/2024: Due to the cover-up over the presence of Nibiru and the effect it has on aircraft, pilots are not told the truth. They are told that the ESRP is due to a solar storm, or Earth flexing Petrol in the skies. Air crews weather and increase in turbulence in the Inflammation, and giving the Call to consult with benign aliens they learn the truth. Over half of mankind has done so, and is subconsciously aware of the truth. Explain it to the Light Force. In the Land of Oz, they are unaware of their options and constantly distracted.

Beyond being served with the truth of what is happening or having the wrong package delivered to the door, being constantly distracted and worried can cause deadly accidents as these two incidents where passengers were nearly fatally. Admitting Nibiru is needed for several reasons. The number of accidents to panic and demand answers. Is everyone to be replaced? Can Nibiru be stopped during its relentless approach? Will the Earth's flexing ease when and when will supper be served? Mankind can sit surely as the cabin suddenly is loses power.

We have stated that the Rothschild banks are most at fault in keeping the truth about Nibiru from the public. The first casualty upon the admission that Nibiru is real and heading for a Passage will be the Rothschild banks and their control of the FED. The Rothschild banks will be the most vulnerable to a sudden media thought this is greatly beneficial, as per the Big Mack. President Trump referred to just such Meanwhile, while waiting for the firm hand of Martial Law, expect a distracted public.
